CIRCUIT COURT

Bertha Shipley Was Awarded $606 Against Forked Deer Pants Co.

Said She Had a Contract and Was Discharged.

The jury in the case of Bertha M. Shipley against the Forked Deer Pants company, this morning returned a verdict for the plaintiff for $606, the amount of money the plaintiff would have received had she worked the remainder of her contract time out with the company.

She alleged in her petition that she was employed by the defendants to come here from Union City and work at their plant at a certain salary. She claims that she was discharged by the defendants before her contract time had expired and asked judgment for the amount of money she would have earned had she been permitted to work the year out.

The following cases were continued: McCormick Harvesting Machine Co. against McGuire and Wiley; A. J. Doolin against the city of Paducah; Albert Winfrey against W. H. Rogers; Hester against James Koger; Gregory against Hart.

The case of Willie Heisler against C. N. Baker, manager of Noah's Ark store, was dismissed and settled. Heisler sued for false prosecution, alleging that defendant had him arrested for stealing money from the store.

The cases of Daisy M. Cooney against the Safety Fund Insurance Co. and Daisy M. Cooney against F. N. Gardner, were by agreement continued and set for the 7th day of the April term of court.

SENSIBLE WORDS

Ex-Gov. Bradley Quoted on the Youtsey Confession.

Says He Is Confident Taylor and Powers Are Innocent.

Jacksonville, Fla., Jan. 30—"A man who will deliberately conspire to murder will also commit perjury to obtain his liberty," said ex-Governor W. O. Bradley of Kentucky at the Windsor hotel today. "I believe that Henry Youtsey's confession, so far as it implicates Governor Taylor and Caleb Powers, was inspired by a promise of immunity."

"I cannot bring myself to believe that either Taylor or Powers was foolish enough to countenance a crime which could only bring disaster upon himself and the party to which he belongs."

"Taylor was the governor of the state, having received the nomination through the efforts of the machine, but he is in no wise looked upon as a leader."

"The killing of Goebel was the result of the inflamed condition of public feeling at the time, and the crime was committed by ignorant men. No one outside of Kentucky can understand the real situation. The killing was the worst thing that could have happened, and there are men that were shrewd enough to know it. As to what effect this is likely to have on the Republican party in the future, I am not prepared to say, but I will say that none of the leaders of the party in Kentucky had any hand in the matter."

OLARK'S grocery has got a floor full of bargains for Saturday.

FANS AND ROOTERS

Arrangements Being Made for the Summer Ball Season.

It Is Practically Settled That Paducah Will Be in the New Ball League

MEETING AT MADISONVILLE

Paducah seems assured a baseball club this year, and fans and rooters are feeling pretty good over the prospects. For some time a move has been on foot, as stated in The Sun a week or two ago, to establish a baseball league in this section, with Paducah one of the cities, and today the success of the venture seems assured.

A lease has been given local promoters on a ball park at La Belle, and as soon as all preliminaries are arranged the grand stand and bleachers will be put up to get in readiness for the spring opening.

A meeting of those from various cities interested in the league will be held Monday in Madisonville, and one of the local promoters will go up to attend and represent Paducah. Another meeting will be held later, probably in Paducah.

Assurance of placing enough of the stock to insure the success of the venture has already been received by Paducah promoters, and they expect to give the people a good, fast, clean article of ball.

As to playing on Sunday the question has not been settled. It is of course desired to have the Sunday games, but if they will not be permitted in Paducah, we will have our club in the league nevertheless, and play only on week days.

Last year an effort was made to organize a club, but at no time were negotiations so far advanced as they now are, and hence the prospects are this year so good that we may as well all begin to train our vocal organs to become rooters.
